WORK EXPERIENCE

Sacred Heart College, Thevara | August 2023 - April 2025

- program coordinator and editor:During my two-year tenure as a Program Coordinator and Editor, I undertook a multifaceted role that blended event management, leadership, and editorial responsibilities. This position allowed me to actively contribute to the academic and cultural environment of the institution while enhancing my professional skills in communication, organization, and media handling.

As a Program Coordinator, I was responsible for planning, organizing, and executing a variety of events, including academic seminars, workshops, cultural programs, and media-related initiatives. I was involved in every stage of event management, from conceptualization to post-event evaluation. My responsibilities included preparing event schedules, coordinating logistics, allocating resources, and ensuring that all activities were conducted efficiently and within the given timeline. I worked closely with faculty members, student teams, and external collaborators to ensure that each program aligned with the objectives and standards of the institution.

As an Editor, I was responsible for managing and maintaining the quality of content published through various college platforms, including newsletters, magazines, and event reports. My role involved reviewing, editing, and refining written materials to ensure clarity, coherence, grammatical accuracy, and consistency in tone and style. I collaborated closely with writers and contributors, offering constructive feedback and guidance to improve the overall quality of content.

My role as a Program Coordinator and Editor played a crucial part in shaping my professional development. It helped me build essential skills such as event management, content creation, editing, communication, and leadership. I learned to adapt to dynamic situations, manage responsibilities effectively, and work collaboratively with diverse teams.

Overall, my two-year experience in this position was both challenging and rewarding. It provided me with practical exposure and hands-on learning opportunities that strengthened my confidence and professional abilities. The experience not only enhanced my technical and creative skills but also prepared me to take on future roles in journalism, media, and communication with a strong foundation and a professional approach.
