About Me

A curious mind with a love for words, rhythm, and storytelling. I'm a beginner in copywriting but a long-time poet and writer, which gives me a natural instinct for tone, emotion, and audience connection. I'm currently seeking opportunities where I can learn, experiment, and grow into a strong copywriter while contributing meaningful, engaging content.

Education

B.Tech in Computer Science Engineering

Krupajal Engineering College, Odisha

Expected Graduation: 2027

(logic + creativity - tech background with a writer's brain)

Experience

Content Writing Intern (unpaid) - Superergo

July 2025 - October 2025

- Wrote and edited content for digital platforms
- Practiced adapting tone for different audiences
- Contributed creative ideas for posts and written campaigns
- Learned how real-world content works (deadlines, feedback, revisions)
- Improved grammar, structure, and clarity through continuous edits

Writing Strengths

- Creative writing & poetry
- Story-driven content
- Catchy headlines and captions
- Clear and simple communication
- Editing and polishing drafts
- Understanding audience emotion
- Beginner-level copywriting techniques

Tools I Use

- Google Docs / MS Word
- Canva for design
- Grammarly
- ChatGPT and other Ai tools (for brainstorming and improving drafts)

What Makes Me Different

- I write because I genuinely enjoy it, not just because it's a job
- I observe people, emotions, and conversations - which helps my writing feel real
- I'm consistent, curious, and open to learning
- I take feedback seriously and improve quickly
