PROJECTS

Influserv - Web Content Development

2024

- About project - Composed and structured content for Influserv, an in-house sub-brand offering influencer marketing services.
Delivered high-quality, audience-specific copy across the platform, ensuring clarity, industry relevance, and strategic alignment with Brandpackt's broader digital communication goals.

Brandpackt Events - Web Content Development

- About project - Developed content for Brandpackt Events, a vertical under Brandpackt focused on event planning and execution.
Created concise and engaging copy that highlighted service capabilities, past event showcases, and brand storytelling, maintaining alignment with the core brand identity.

Brandpackt - Web Content Development

- About project - Contributed to the development of Brandpackt's official in-house website by authoring clear, structured, and brand-aligned content.
Focused on crafting user-oriented copy for key sections such as the homepage, about page, and service offerings, ensuring coherence with overall brand strategy and SEO principles.

The Golden Truth - Right2RightGold - Season 2

- About project - Led by Malabar Gold and Diamonds and The Times of India, 'The Golden Truth' was an initiative to promote organically sourced gold throughout the market.
Conducted an in-depth study of how gold should be ethically sourced versus the reality of how it is actually being carried out. Also explored consumer rights, highlighting the importance of exercising these fundamental rights. Authored blog articles and engaging poster content on this topic.

Frames of Solitude: Analysing Movie Frames as a Depiction of Existentialism

2024

- About project - in depth analysis on Solitude becoming a journey of self discovery in the movies Her and Deshadanam.
Explored how the protagonists, suffering from loneliness, use solitude as a course to find solace.

- About project - a structural analysis on how the novel delves into mystery, action, symbols, culture and semantics. Examined these elements as essential components without which a plot could not be constructed.
