Designation: Team Lead - November 2023 to Present

Inside Sales Analyst – March 2023 to November 2023

Resourcing Analyst - September 2022 to March 2023

At SoftLabs, an Australian enterprise software company, I interact with clients and consultants via emails and calls to achieve the business goals of the organization. My role focuses on leading the team, identifying market opportunities, supporting client needs, and managing consultant relationships to drive business objectives effectively.

- Conducted market research to identify prospects in the Aged Care and Manufacturing sectors for ERP Implementation services.
- Utilized tools like Sales Navigator, Apollo, and ZoomInfo to gather insights on companies and decision-makers.
- Generating leads through emails and cold calls.
- Led and mentored a team, providing training, assigning tasks, and conducting performance reviews to ensure team targets were met.
- Coordinated with senior management to develop business strategies and translate them into revenue-generating activities.
- Conducted market research to identify various industries and prospects for the technology consulting services.
- As a Resourcing Analyst, I managed the recruitment process by writing job descriptions, sourcing IT consultants, and maintaining a strong talent pipeline for key roles.

Silicon Media Technologies Pvt Ltd, Bangalore - October 2019 to July 2022

Designation: Sales Process Executive

As an Inside Sales Executive for the Indian arm of a US based technology media house, I interact with senior corporate management executives via emails and calls to drive the sales objectives of the organization.

- Generating new prospects and converting them into clients.
- Understanding the goals and requirements of the clients through verbal and written interactions.
- Creating and delivering personalized presentations to senior level decision makers.
- Coordinating with senior management team to formulate the sales strategies and translating it into business revenues.
- Working with cross teams to ensure products are delivered within an agreed timeline to meet customer expectations.

Heritage Automotives, Thrissur - June 2017 to July 2019

Designation: Sales Representative

As a Sales Representative with Pinnacle, a leading Royal Enfield dealership in India, I was responsible for driving sales through effective customer engagement. My key duties included performing cold calls to prospective customers, scheduling meetings to discuss product options, and consistently closing deals to meet monthly targets. Additionally, I played an active role in onboarding and training new team members to ensure alignment with sales strategies and company goals.

Apollo Tyres Ltd, Perambra – November 2015 to December 2016

Designation: Technical Engineer

As a Technical Engineer at Apollo Tyres Ltd, I worked at the Perambra manufacturing plant, the company's first facility in tire manufacturing. My responsibilities included identifying and addressing process gaps, ensuring compliance with industry standards and overseeing quality adherence throughout critical manufacturing stages. This included supervising compound mixing, extrusion for tread and sidewalls, and the calendaring process.
