SUMMARY

Performance marketer with hands-on experience in running and optimizing paid campaigns across Meta and Google Ads. I've worked with a diverse range of clients from early-stage startups to high-spending brands across India, the UAE, and the UK delivering measurable results in lead generation, conversion growth, and ROI improvement. Through my roles at Vibe Technology and The Post. Studio, I've built strong expertise in audience segmentation, A/B testing, retargeting, and budget optimization. Known for blending data-driven strategy with creative collaboration, I ensure each campaign aligns with business goals and drives real impact.
