Growth Specialist @ Aventus Informatics | Helping businesses scale with custom web, mobile, and AI solutions.

Ernakulam, Kerala, India

Summary

Results-driven and strategic Growth Specialist at Aventus Informatics, orchestrating the end-to-end sales cycle to secure and onboard key clients across a dynamic international landscape.

My expertise lies in identifying and engaging businesses poised for digital transformation and connecting their vision with our world-class technical execution. I specialize in consultative selling, crafting tailored proposals for a diverse service portfolio including:

1. Website & Mobile App Development: Building intuitive, high-performance digital products.
2. Digital Marketing: Designing data-driven strategies to amplify brand presence and drive conversions.
3. AI Solutions: Integrating artificial intelligence to automate processes, gain insights, and create competitive advantages.

I thrive on understanding complex business challenges and positioning Aventus Infomatics as the premier partner for scalable, innovative, and results-oriented digital solutions. My role is not just to sell a service, but to build lasting partnerships that deliver measurable ROI and fuel mutual growth.

Core Focus Areas:

1. Global Business Development: Hunting and closing new logos in target international markets.
2. Full-Cycle Sales Leadership: Managing the pipeline from initial prospecting and lead qualification to negotiation and contract closure.
3. Solution Selling: Translating technical capabilities into compelling business value propositions.
4. Market Penetration: Expanding Aventus's footprint in the US, Africa, Australia, and Singapore.
5. Client Relationship Building: Establishing trust as a strategic advisor from the first point of contact.

Let's connect if you're looking to:

1. Discuss a digital project (Web, App, Digital Marketing, or AI).
2. Explore potential synergies and partnerships.
3. Share insights on the tech landscape in any of my focus regions.
